

Greetings, Lubin Alumni:

Remember, life at Pace does not end when you graduate: it continues and thrives.

Since graduating from the Lubin School of Business at Pace University in 1989 with an MBA in Financial Management and Marketing Management, I have remained quite active at the school serving on a number of Lubin and Pace Committees. I have recently been appointed

Please consider volunteering as a mentor, speaker, or attendee at student events by contacting the Office of Alumni Relations for more information at pacealum@pace.edu. In addition, we welcome alumni participation on one of our Lubin committees, including Setter Connect, Program, and Awards. We hope that you will join our
